Philadelphia, May 12.-Chief Bender e tered the hall of fame which all twirle dream of, but seldom enter, by shutting out Cleveland without a hit or run t day at Shibe Park in a game which the Athletics won by 4 to 0. The India pitched almost a perfect game, the only Batted for Mattern in the ninth. blot on his afternoon's record being a pass to Turner, who lived but a brief time to enjoy the Indian's liberality, he came up in one, two, three order, and then walked out on the field to let the Athletics enjoy themselves at the bat,

Officially, twenty-six men faced Bende during the nine innings, Turner being the only player to reach first, via the fourth ball route, and he did not pass that anchorage in safety.

Bender's control, his absolute mastery over the batters, and his speed were alpresent Cleveland outfit who can hit with tenacity seldom equaled the Dahle some-were helpless before the cool and deliberate Indian, who worked through to the finish without losing a drop of perspiration or ounce of flesh. As the game progressed and it dawned on the crowd present that they had a possible chance to see a new record established at was watched for with bated breath, and every time a Nap went down and out Bender was given a cheer. At the end of every session the crowd was liberal in its applause.

In the last inning the Ohioans made one more desperate bid to break into the hit column. Lord lined to Hartsel and Bradley fanned. Elmore flied. The old *Batted for Cannitz in the third, Ehiladelphia favorite then stepped to the Batted for Moore in the twelfth. Flilladelphia favorite then stepped to the plate to bat for Linke. While Flick is not the Flick of old, he still has a few hits stored away in his system. The crowd was apprehensive of Elmore, but when he raised a dinky little foul, which Thomas smothered with his mit, ending the game, there arose a great sigh of relief from the crowd, followed by a wild cheer.
